New-Type Labels

If you are making dolls, craft items such as toys, flower arrangements – painting pictures, or the like, perhaps you'll be interested in "sticky, gummy" labels to mark your product as authentic Appomattox goods – and thereby attract out-of-town buyers or in-county people who want "the real thing".

The TIMES-VIRGINIAN offers the new type labels with a backing easily removed to reveal a sticky surface which will cling to your project.

Ask anybody on the staff for details! Tourists visit Appomattox by the hundreds – yes, a hundred thousand and more each year and many of them are interested in gifts and souvenirs to take home that are handmade and original. The right label can help sell your product.

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving memory of William Henry Almond, who died August 3, 1970.
Our loved one's gone away now
And entered through the door
That leads to peace and rest and love
For now and ever more.

The stage of life is a dreary place
When a dear loved one is gone,
But we just have to do our best
and continue to carry on.

We hated to give you up dear Dad,
But we know that God knew best,
He knew we didn't want you to suffer
So thats why he called you to rest.
We miss you more than words can tell
And no one can take your place
And we will be looking forward to that great day
When again we will meet you face to face.
Sadly missed by wife, children, and grand children. 8/5/1t
